GETTYSBURG, PA., WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 7, 1906

NO. 11

LONG NOVEMBER COURT TWO CASES WILL LIKELY OC- CUPY THE TWO WEEKS

The Eyler Murder Case — and the
Hostetter—Kalbach vs Smith
Civil Case.

While there are about a dozen old criminal cases, continued from the August Court, to be disposed of at the November Court next week, and as many more new ones, the case that will consume the most time and in which the most interest is centered is the case against William Eyler, charged with the murder of Howard G. Miller. The prisoner has been the attraction on visiting day each week at the jail. He has become more quiet than at first, not as nervous but seldom talks. His father, mother and wife were to see him last week. Seventy jurors have been summoned and it is expected that there will be no difficulty to get a jury out of this number.

Other cases continued from August court are the following:

Com. vs. Geo. Shaffer, charged with larceny on oath of S. A. Hammond.

Com. vs. S. L. Johns, two cases charging cruelty to animals on oath of Dr. J. R. Russel.

Com. vs. John Jones, charged with non-maintenance on oath of Lizzie Jones.

Com. vs. Edward Unger charged with cruelty to animals on oath of Dr. J. R. Russel.

Com. vs. Dale O. Williamson, charged with false pretense on oath of Paul A. Martin.

Com. vs. Samuel Humes, charged with assault with intent to murder on oath of Jesse L. Group.

Com. vs. Samuel J. Smith, charged with larceny on oath of James L. Big-ham.

There are two cases against Aaron Hostetter, J. B. Eckart and M. F. Rebert continued and to abide the final disposition of the case at August Court in which J. B. Eckart was found guilty of sale of adulterated food. The bills as to Messrs. Hostetter and Rebert were quashed.

The new cases so far returned by the Justice are the following:

Com. vs. Wm. Dixon, two cases charging fornication and bastardy and attempted abortion on oath of Violet M. Stover, returned by Justice Chas. H. Mayers.

Com. vs. John B. McBrean, two cases both charging attempt to steal on oaths of George Kellner and John J. Coffer, returned by Justice John L. Hill.

Com. vs. Geo. Fleming, charge, sur-ety of the peace on oath of Martha J. Conley, returned by Justice J. L. Hill.

Com. vs. Charles F. Krichen, two charges of larceny on oaths of Sebastian H. Weaver, returned by Justice V. H. Lilly.

Com. vs. Geo. W. Rinehart, charged with larceny on oath of John A. Davis, returned by Justice V. H. Lilly.

Com. vs. Clarence and Annie Laughman, charged with surety of the peace on oath of Franklin Noel, returned by Justice R. M. Straley of New Oxford.

Com. vs. Charles Baker, two charges, non-maintenance and desertion on oath of Amos Stonestier, returned by Justice S. H. Eicholtz of Cumberland township.

Com. vs. Sampson Albert, charged with fornication and bastardy on oath of Rosie C. Weidner, returned by Justice D. H. Markley of York Springs.

Com. vs. Archie Withers, charged with aggravated assault and battery on oath of Murray A. Sadler, returned by Justice R. M. Straley of New Oxford.

While there are sixteen cases on the trial list of civil cases for the November court, it has been practically agreed upon by the lawyers to continue all the cases but the first one. This case, the murder case, and rest of the criminal business is expected to consume the entire two weeks of court.

This civil case is that of A. M. Kalbach and D. B. Hostetter vs. Horace F. Smith, administrator of the estate of Emanuel Smith, dec'd. This case was tried one year ago, November court 1905, and resulted in a verdict for plaintiffs of $548.16. The plaintiffs had contracted to buy farm of Emanuel Smith, dec'd, for about $12,000, and $1800 of the purchase money was paid down. There was some question about a cloud on the title. When it had been removed by court proceedings the farm was sold to A. C. Givler with a loss of about $1000. The plaintiffs then sued for the $1800 hand money paid. The question of fact was the exact circumstances under which the $1800 was paid. W. C. Sheely and Wm. McSherry, Esqs., represent plaintiffs and C. S. Duncan and J. L. Butt, Esqs., the defendant. After the verdict a motion was made for a new trial and Sept. 17 a new trial was ordered for the reason that upon a review of the court's charge in case the complaint that the charge was not sufficiently full and clear was well taken. It took between three and four days to try case a year ago and will likely take that much time at November court.

Picture Exhibit.

The exhibit of pictures on Tuesday of last week for the benefit of the Civic Club was well worth a visit. The pity is it could not have been held several days that persons might study these reproductions of celebrated paintings at their leisure.

There was a notable collection of photographs of Madonnas and other works of art, gathered by Mrs. Frances Walter and her daughter, during their late sojourn in Europe, photos of paintings by Chas. Morris Young, our own distinguished townsman now home from Paris, who with his wife were interesting visitors. The exhibition was well attended by lovers of high art, a number from neighboring towns being present.

A request has been sent to Miss Emily Horner to exhibit in Hanover for the benefit of the Civic League of that place.

The Civic Club of Gettysburg extends thanks to Miss Emily for the generous help afforded, and to all who patronized the affair.

Teachers' Institute.

The Fifty-second Annual Teachers' Institute will come off in Xavier Hall during Thanksgiving week, from Nov. 26th to 30th.

The officers of the convention will be, President, H. Milton Roth, Superintendent. Vice Pres., Wm. J. Book, Gettysburg; Willis A. Burgoon, Littlestown; Homer P. Troup, East Berlin; Clayton S. Rice, Butler and Wm. C. Storrick, Mountpleasant. Rec. Sec., Miss Bernardina Corrigan, McSherrystown. Assistant Rec. Secs., Miss Mary E. Benner, Mountjoy and Miss Jennie M. Group, Menallen. Cor. Secs., Miss Carrie E. Miller, New Oxford and Miss Dorothy E. Beamer, Menallen. Registrars, Ed. W. Hartman, Franklin, Robert E. Fisher, Butler, D. Hill Rock, Hamiltonban, I. Willis Appller, Mountjoy and Mervin Wintrod, Germany.

The Institute will be opened with an address of welcome by Prof. Charles H. Huber of this place, with response by Mervin J. Cook of Menallen. The following day instructors have been provided, Dr. W. N. Ferris of Big Rapids, Michigan, Dr. C. C. Ellis of Perkiomenville, Dr. G. M. D. Eckels of Shippensburg, Dr. J. A. Singmaster of this place, Prof. H. G. Gordine of Hagerstown. With the exception of Dr. Eckels few teachers have heard instructors have never been here before, the instructors before and several of the instructors have never been here before. Prof. Geo. C. Young of Kutztown, Pa., will be musical director and Miss Mary E. Sheads of this place pianist.

The lecture course is one that will both entertain and instruct the teachers. Monday evening Dr. Frank M. Bristol of Washington, D. C., will deliver a lecture on "Brains." It is spoken of as a remarkable lecture.

Tuesday evening The DeKoven Male Quartette and Reader will entertain and they come highly recommended.

Wednesday evening Rufus Everson King of New York will lecture on "This New Age." He is said to be a bright, sparkling, forceful lecturer.

Thursday evening will be a musical entertainment by "The Musical Five or Boston's Artistic Novelty." Music and song make up the enjoyment of their performance.

Friday evening will bring Institute to a close and the entertainment will be by The Floyds, Magicians and Novelty Entertainers.

Instructors and entertainments give promise of an Institute to compare favorably with any of its predecessors.

All Records Broken.

L. M. Buehler the popular druggist, who introduced in Gettysburg Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia with such wonderful success, says he is hearing from druggists in other parts of the country, where the plan that he urged the Dr. Howard Co. to adopt, introducing their specific by selling at half price had been followed.

"The specific gives remarkable results in the most obstinate cases of dyspepsia and constipation, and although every package has been sold under my personal guarantee to refund the money if it did not give satisfaction, not one has been returned."

"My experience has been a duplicate of my Elmhurst friends," said L. M. Buehler, "except that I have had one customer ask for her money back, which I returned without any questions. However, I do not think she could have given the remedy a fair trial. I am still selling the specific at half price, a fifty-cent bottle of sixty doses for 25 cents, although I do not know how long I shall be able to do so, and your readers had better take advantage of this chance before it is too late."

C. E. Convention.

The annual convention of the Adams County C. E. Union will be held in Zion Lutheran Church, Fairfield, Rev. C. L. Ritter pastor, Thursday and Friday, Nov. 8 and 9. The first session beginning Thursday at 7:45 p. m.

An interesting program of addresses and discussions has been arranged. One of the features of this convention will be the conference on Missions, County and Junior work.

UNLOOKED FOR ROMANCES

MISS M'ALLEN SURPRISES HER FRIENDS BY MARRIAGE.

A Romance Started by Cupid Over the Wires Ends in Marriage at Harrisburg.

Mumford—McAllen.

Announcements were received last week of the marriage of Samuel H. T. Mumford of Snow Hill, Md., and Miss Margaret Roberta McAllen, of Chambersburg, on Saturday, Oct. 27, in Baltimore, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Mumford, a brother of the groom. Miss McAllen had been spending several months here with Mrs. Cobean and Miss Emma Cobean, the latter being present at the wedding, which took place at Stafford Hotel, Baltimore. Mr. and Mrs. Mumford sailed for Florida where they will spend the winter. The wedding came as a surprise to the friends of the bride in this place.

Miller—Starnier.

Cupid has been using the telegraph wires for a romance in the upper end of the county. Miss Laura Starnier learning the code from her brother at Starnier's Station made the acquaintance over the wire of Charles Miller, operator at D. & M. Junction. They finally met. Then on Oct. 26 Miss Starnier took train for Harrisburg and Mr. Miller happened to get on same train at the Junction and when at Harrisburg Rev. P. H. Schroder tied the knot.

Miller—Powell.

On Oct. 30th. at Arendtsville by Rev. Theo. C. Hessou, Harvey W. Miller of Arendtsville and Miss Bertha Powell of Cashtown.

Bream—Fissel.

On Nov. 1st. at Bendersville by Rev. S. A. Diehl, Isaiah W. Bream and Miss Vertie Fissel, both of Idaville.

Shultz—Miller.

On Nov. 1st. at Bendersville by Rev. S. A. Diehl, Charles E. Shultz and Miss Elsie Miller, both of Aspers.

Stremmel—Rudisil.

Oct. 21st. at home of the groom, by Rev. M. J. Roth, Harvey Stremmel of Bittinger and Miss Kathryn A. Rudisil of near Spring Grove.

Miller—Young.

On Oct. 25 at Hanover by Rev. A. M. Heilman, Harry Austin Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Miller of near Sell's Station, and Miss Alberta Young of Hanover.

Strickler—Bange.

On Nov. 1 by Rev. Ellis S. Hay, Harry A. Strickler of Midway and Miss Sadie Bange of Hanover.

The banns of matrimony between Frank N. Bender and Miss Anna Smith, both of Mountpleasant township have been published at Conowago Chapel.

Martin—Ketner.

A very pretty quiet wedding took place in Harrisburg on Nov. 1. James Martin of Harrisburg, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Jere Martin of this place, and Miss Martha J. Ketner of Altoona, were married by Rev. Father Steffy. Only the immediate families were present. After the ceremony they were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Althoff, sister and brother-in-law of the groom.

Mysterious Party.

A mysterious party was given by Miss Carrie Miller Saturday evening. The guests who met at her home were blindfolded and led by a mysterious person through the streets and at last were taken to the home of D. S. Coleman on High street.

There awaiting their coming was a witch in her tent ready to tell their fortunes, after this, mysterious games and contests of all kinds were played and prizes awarded. At 11 o'clock all were invited to the dining room where mysterious refreshments were enjoyed and at 12 o'clock all left for their homes after spending a very enjoyable evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Miller, Mrs. C. G. Miller, Miss Emma C. Beamer, Miss Mary Snyder of Waynesboro, Misses Nina, Nell and Cora Thorne, Mary Sheads, Ruth Crouse, Rose Plank, Stella Raffensperger and Carrie Miller. Messrs. W. K. Fleck, Chas. Sheely, W. A. Berkey, Harry Garlach, H. Ray Wolf, J. R. McCallough, Dr. George Cobean, and Norton C. Miller.

Plans for Citizens' Band.

The Board of Trustees of the Citizens' Band under the charter recently granted by the Court met and organized. The board is composed of I. L. Taylor, Dr. D. R. Hartman, H. T. Weaver, Edw. M. Bender, C. Wm. Seales and Mark Eckert. Mr. Taylor was elected president and Wm. Arch. McLean secretary and treasurer. The board took up the question of ways and means to put the band on the best possible foundation, and to secure uniforms. The method advised by the board was a series of band concerts this winter, probably two a month, to be given in the court-house if the room can be secured. It is expected to canvass the town for season tickets. The board believed that the town people would liberally subscribe toward the same. A good band is an attraction to a town that nothing else can take the place of and the cultivation of the musical taste is always toward that which is best for any community. C. F. Solt, Wm. Flemming and Allan Holtzworth were appointed a committee to canvass, and F. M. Harman, I. L. Taylor and Wm. Arch. McLean committee on program.

Jan Has Resigned.

Jan has resigned, Jan the College boy's friend, Jan with a heart every College boy could find, Jan who had been a part of the life of Gettysburg College for years, Jan whom hundreds of alumni always sought out when they returned, the same Jan to the fathers of yesterday that he had been to the sons of today.

Jan, otherwise Adam Foutz, had been the janitor of Gettysburg College for 30 years and 7 months when he resigned last week. He was more than a caretaker of buildings. His influence with the boys was always along the heart strings and always in the right direction. Jan had a patience and sense of humor built for the College boy. No matter what those dogged on boys did, no matter how much trouble they made him, he went about with that quaint humorous way as though the joke was on the boys and patiently carved out the key holes the boys had plugged up or carried out the bay the recitation rooms had been loaded with or undid the thousand and one unusual things the boys had done.

The boys were all Jan's boys and there went out to them a tenderness and kindness that were bright spots in their lives. In the days of stove's many a scuffle of coal went up to a boy's room by Jan when he was sick and with it a cheer to encourage him. No favor in his power to do was withheld, even when he knew it was for one of those devilish bad boys that had made him trouble. He could call them names he would let no one else call them in his hearing. He was the butt of their jokes often but they gazed him out of the heart and he knew it and laughed good naturedly at them.

After a generation of service he handed in his resignation. It was accepted and as a token of appreciation for the service he was voted a pension of $5 a month for life. John Spangler was elected janitor in his place and Harvey Bollinger assistant janitor.

Cashtown, Pa.

The Ladies of Cashtown Reformed church will hold their third annual Chrysanthemum show and sale on Saturday, Nov. 10, 1906, from 11.00 a. m. to 4.00 p. m. Refreshments will be served in a large tent on the church lawn. Sale of Chrysanthemums will begin promptly at 2 p. m. Present indications promise the grandest display ever made. Come help it along. Everybody welcome.

Committee

The Woman's Bible Society.

The 60th anniversary of the Gettysburg Woman's Bible Society was recently held in the Presbyterian Church. The receipts of the year were $114.41 expenditures $112.75, with balance of $1.66. Bibles were bought to value of $47.15 and sold at $57.24 and donated to amount of $3.24. Miss Maria Thompson is the only surviving member of the original Bible Society. The following officers were elected, Mrs. Helen Keith, Pres., Miss Annie Danner, Vice Pres., Mrs. Charles Ruff, Treas., Miss Agnes Barr, Librarian and Miss Margaret McLean, Sec.

All Saints Day.

All Saints' Day was uniquely celebrated by Rev. Edward H. Trae. He took a party to one of the oldest graveyards in the county, where the two Episcopal churches once stood near York Springs. There on a magnificent spot, under century old oaks, surrounded by the graves of the pioneers of this county he held a brief service. Later in the day services were held in the York Springs Episcopal Church.

A Good Record.

Out of all the external remedies on the market we doubt if there is one that has the record of this world-renowned porous plaster—Allecock's. It has now been in use for sixty years, and still continues to be as popular as ever in doing its great work of relieving our pains and aches. It is the remedy we all need when suffering from any form of ache or pain resulting from taking cold or over-strain.

Allecock's Plasters are sold by Druggists in every part of the civilized world.

—There will be communion services in Reformed Church, McKimstown next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, preparatory services on Sat. Nov. 10, in afternoon at 2 o'clock.

DEATHS BEYOND THE COUNTY

OF PEOPLE WELL KNOWN IN THE COUNTY.

Harry Phillips, Conductor—Cadwalader Biddle—Col. Chas. B. McClean—Mark A. Kurtz

Harry Phillips, a freight conductor on the Philadelphia and Reading railroad was killed in Jenkintown, Montgomery county, Pa., on Tuesday of last week, Oct. 30. He stepped from his train directly in front of an express train, which struck and hurled him a considerable distance, his body being badly mangled. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Phillips, late of East Berlin, lived at Columbia, Pa., married a Miss Rinehart of East Berlin and was aged about 48 years. He began railroading on the East Berlin railroad, then with the W. M. R. R., afterwards a brakeman on the Pennsylvania railroad, living at Hanover. He has been a conductor on the Reading for a number of years. The funeral was held on Thursday at Columbia. He leaves a wife and two daughters. A brother also survives, George Phillips of near Baltimore.

Cadwalader Biddle, member of the famous Biddle family of Philadelphia, died on Sunday night, Oct. 25, at the home of his sister in Philadelphia. He was found dead in bed shortly after midnight, a few minutes after his 69th birthday had slipped away, heart disease being cause of death. From 1862 to 1882 he was secretary and treasurer of the Board of Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania and from 1884 until the time of his death he was general agent and secretary of the State Board of Charities. For many years, at least once a year, occasionally oftener, he visited this county inspecting almshouses and jails, and his reports of this county's institutions gave them a rank with the best in the state. He was a warm friend of Dr. J. W. C. O'Neal of this place, who was associated with him many years as a member of the Board of Public Charities. Only a few months ago Mr. Biddle made his annual visit here and stayed with his friend Dr. O'Neal.

Wm. M. Keller died at his home in Hanover on last Tuesday, Oct. 30, from tuberculosis following typhoid fever, aged 38 years, 11 months and 7 days. For the past five years he has been clerk at Mansion House, Hanover. The funeral was on last Thursday with interment in Mt. Olivet cemetery. He was twice married, the second wife surviving with four children by latter marriage, all at home. Besides his parents living in Hanover, Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Keller, he is survived by three sisters and two brothers. Mrs. Charles Yost of Two Taverns, Bertha, Blanch and Daniel F. of Hanover, and Charles D. of Reading.

Col. Charles B. McClean died at his home near Towson, Md., on last Thursday evening aged about 69 years. He was the only son of Rev. Oliver O. and Ann Sophia Bigham McClean, natives respectively of Gettysburg and Emmitsburg, who died at Lewistown, Pa. Deceased was born in Cumberland county, spent his boyhood there and when only 16 years old ran away from home to join the Union Army, joined the 195th Pa. Regt. Inf., became lieutenant of his company and was its commander before end of the war. He had a taste for civil engineering and became chief engineer of the Baltimore and Philadelphia railroad and for 27 years was county surveyor of Baltimore County. He was civil engineer of the Lehigh Valley railroad for years and was connected with the City and Suburban railway. He is said to have had few peers as a civil engineer. His military title was received as Lieutenant Colonel of the First Maryland Regiment guards. He was a life long Democrat. He was a first cousin of Hon. Wm. McClean of this place.

Mark A. Kurtz died at Nampa, Idaho, and his body was brought to this place, the funeral being held from home of his sister, Mrs. Amos Eckert, on Tuesday of last week, Oct. 30. Mr. Kurtz was born in Gettysburg about 35 years ago, a son of Anthony B. Kurtz, and was in business for many years in Philadelphia, later at Omaha and in 1887 became one of the pioneer founders of Nampa. For several years after locating at Nampa he held the position of immigration agent for the Union Pacific and did yeomans service in the building and development of his adopted state, Idaho, and his home town, Nampa. He was a veteran of the Civil War and a Republican in politics, being a power in politics in his state. Apparently he was in good health, when at 6 o'clock in the morning he rose to look at the clock and suddenly fell to the floor.

Mrs. Elizabeth M. Wintroe died at the home of her son, Calvin Wintroe, near Littlestown, from dropsy, on last Tuesday morning, Oct. 30, aged 67 years, 9 months and 22 days.

Mrs. Catherine Liddy, who died near Greensburg, Pa., the other day was the woman who, after the Battle of Gettysburg, smuggled herself in a bag of provisions to find out the fate of her husband and three sons.

Major Biram S. McNair died at the York Hospital on last Saturday night after an eventful and useful career as a soldier, merchant, publisher and lawyer aged about 68 years. He was ill but a few days, a complication causing his removal to hospital at noon of the day he died. He was born in Freedom township, a son of the well known S. S. McNair of that township. In the early part of the war he enlisted in Cole's Cavalry regiment of Maryland, serving faithfully as a sergeant and as a lieutenant until in 1864, when he resigned and raised a company for the Third Maryland Cavalry which went to New Orleans and joined General Banks' division for the Red River, Texas, campaign. He went to York in 1885 and engaged in the publication of the "York Republican," attracting much attention with his vigorous style of journalism. He was also engaged in the dry goods business with his brother-in-law, Jacob Hauer, now deceased. He read law with H. L. Fisher and was admitted to the Bar of York county, making a name for himself in that profession. A few years back he wrote and published a history of the famous Cole's Cavalry. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon with interment in York Cemetery. He leaves two sons, Hauer and Bigler, who recently entered the United States Navy. He is survived by three brothers, Harry McNair and Wm. B. McNair of Freedom township and Samuel McNair of Emmitsburg.

Mrs. Emma Frances Cover Orr, the subject of this sketch, whose death was published in your last week's issue was born in Adams Co., Pa., Nov. 23, 1839 in the vicinity of Orrtanna, and died on Friday morning, Oct. 26, 1906, at her home in Wormleysburg, Pa., a suburb of Harrisburg, on the western bank of the Susquehanna. Just one month ago, her sister, Martha Cover Fringer, wife of Dr. G. W. Fringer of Pana, Ill., preceded her to the heavenly home. Mrs. Orr was the youngest of 12 children born to Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Cover natives of Adams Co., Pa.

On Nov. 5, 1861, the deceased was married to William T. Orr. To this happy union 4 children were born, 2 boys and 2 girls, all of whom are living to share with the grief stricken husband, the loss of a beloved wife and a kind affectionate mother. At the age of 14 she was received into the fellowship of the Reformed church by the site of confirmation during the pastorate of the Rev. Jacob Zeigler, then pastor of the Reformed church known as Fiohr's Reformed and Lutheran church, Adams Co., Pa. Funeral services were conducted at her home in Wormleysburg, Pa., on Monday, Oct. 29, by the Rev. M. M. Noecker of Marysville, Pa., who for a number of years was the pastor of the family while they lived near Arendtsville, Pa.

Four young men, warm friends of the family acted as pall bearers, Harry Beigh of Harrisburg, Pa., Charles Raffensperger, Edgar McDanniel and Herman Toot of Arendtsville, Pa., Charles McDanniel of Arendtsville, Pa., an intimate friend of the family also attended the funeral. Interment was made in the Campbell Cemetery, about one and one half miles from Wormleysburg, Pa. The vacancy in the family caused by the death of this dear companion and loving mother is very significant. She had the quality of a good wife, a most affectionate mother and a kind friend.

May the God of the living and the dead, who is able to cheer the hearts of all the sorrowing, comfort and sustain this dear family in this hour of their life.

In Memoriam.

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear sister, Mrs. Martha Jane Group, who was burned to death when boiling apple butter near Idaville three years ago, October 28, 1903.

You are not forgotten dear sister, And never will you be.

For as long as life and memory last I will remember thee.

By her brother,

WILLIAM HUMMELBAUGH

Help! Help! I'm Failing

Thus cried the hair. And a kind neighbor came to the rescue with a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor. The hair was saved! This was because Ayer's Hair Vigor is a regular hair medicine. Falling hair is caused by a germ, and this medicine completely destroys these germs. Then the healthy scalp gives rich, healthy hair.

ELECTION EXPENSES

When the smoke of the present campaign has cleared away, one fact is going to stand out prominently, namely, that the recent act regulating election expenses has eliminated the opportunity for the improper spending of money. The act has a step in the right direction, but other steps in the same direction could be taken by the coming legislature. The election expenses should be restricted as much as possible. No expressions should be left in the act to be construed for any expenditure beyond what is specified. No unspecified expenditures should be possible. It must be made possible for the man without money to seek office or be called into service by the people. It has been becoming a condition that the poor man need not apply, means not brains has been looked upon as making availability. Every possible avenue of expenses must be cut out and the doors opened to the best citizens, men of character, clean men, honest men, poor men both honorable and honest.

BALLOT REFORM.

The COMPILER is for ballot reform in the coming Legislature. The only way to protect nation, State and local government from a party gone wrong or a corrupt machine is to make the people free to crush it. The first column on the present ticket for straight party votes was put there in the interest of politicians. It has been the excuse of the party man. It has been the method of having the corrupt vote delivered. Because of it every voter who enters becomes spotted, for it takes longer to mark in every block than make one mark. The first column must be taken away. Every elector should vote for the man of his choice in every block. A better ticket would be difficult to invent if the first column was removed. The removal of the first column should be accompanied by a law prohibiting the voter from having any assistance whatever in the marking of his ticket unless physical incapacity to make a mark be established. Better a few spoiled ballots than any loop hole for the delivery of ballots for a consideration. Make the elector free with a secret ballot and first column removed.

MAKING PAVEMENTS.

The COMPILER has been so busy with politics recently as to have been prevented from saying a word on the making of pavements. When new pavements are to be made under compulsory proceedings certainly such pavements should be about the center of the town, where the most travel is, where the public would suffer more by the neglect than the individual in the making, or where the refusal to make has been obstinate so that the public has suffered. To go to the outlying parts of the town and make new pavements to secure uniformity in grade or to frighten good citizens into doing the same seems to us an abuse of the powers to compel the making of pavements. The Compiler believes in civic improvements and of the very best character—and in matter of pavements—concrete if possible, but we do not believe much in the civic improvement that comes through force and fear. Civic improvement comes best with the sympathy and support of the community back of it, and these things because the law gives the power does not create that sympathy and support. We have heard of citizens who fear they will receive notices because their pavements are worse than some who had to make theirs. Would it not be better if the rule was laid down, doing unto others as you would want to be done by. This rule ought to suggest to the Highway Committee to call on citizens where pavements are needed, talk over the subject, ascertain whether it will suit financially to make same, if not how soon they can get ready, appeal for haste in well traveled ways, give more time to less traveled ways, according to the public needs. This method could be followed without any show of authority or force and would bring the improvements faster than to select sections for the demonstration of power and delay in other sections under the law would put down pavements.

REMOVE THE ARCHES.

The compiler has been so busy with politics recently as to have been prevented from saying a word on the making of pavements.

is very often acquired, though generally inherited. Bad hygiene, foul air, impure water, are among its causes. It is called "the soil for tuberculosis," and where it is allowed to remain tuberculous or consumption is pretty sure to take root.

slightly skeletons of the arches to disfigure the square and streets. Isn't there any one in town whose duty it is to take them down or have them taken down, or isn't there any one responsible for their being up who would volunteer to remove them for the cause of civic beauty.

A TIME TO BE CAREFUL.

With the hunting season in full swing the time has come for every hunter to be most careful. It is always dangerous to carry a loaded gun pointed in a direction where its discharge might reach human beings or habitations. In the hunting before gun is discharged the hunter must have a care for the direction in which he shoots and people and houses within range. The sight of game is liable to excite many hunters so that guns are hurriedly discharged. Be careful before you pull the trigger.

ALL OVER THE COUNTY

Fairfield, Nov. 3.—Cornel Sanders of Illinois has purchased the Welby farm of Mr. Hartman for $8400 and the John Crone farm for $600 an acre. Mr. Sanders was a former resident of this community and recently sold his Illinois farm for $133 per acre. He and his family will return in the spring and take possession of farms purchased.

E. E. King has purchased the Hartman house from Mr. Carson for $1250. Mr. King at present is in the mercantile business at Virginia Mills and will move to Fairfield in the spring, having sold his business to Roy Stoops.

The Adams County C. E. will meet in the Lutheran church in this place Nov. 8 and 9.

Hon. A. E. Seabrook has taken charge of the elevator at Fairfield Station and will conduct the grain, feed and coal business. He will pay Gettysburg and mill prices for all kinds of grain.

The bids for the water supply opened Sept. 1 exceeding the sum allowed. The project is not dead but dormant for the time.

Daniel Sanders, whose foot was amputated by Drs. Glenn and Trout, as assisted by Dr. Dickson of Gettysburg, is getting along very well.

Dr. Glenn has had a new tin roof put on his house. A metallic roof is being put on the Reformed church.

Rev. J. F. Mackley was at Chambersburg last week and attended part of the sessions of the Potomac Synod.

Cold Springs, Nov. 3rd. Mrs. Harvey of Atlantic City is visiting her sister Mrs. Fordyce Sylvester.

Mrs. Barbara Baker has gone to Zellers where she will spend some time with her daughter Mrs. Geo. Staley.

Squirrels are plentiful this season. No wonder John Naugle won't speak to common folks. It's a young daughter.

Everybody has been busy picking apples and making cider. Apples are a good crop this winter.

Freedom Twp., Nov. 3rd. Mrs. B. F. Stipe and sons Leroy and John of Columbia, Pa., and Miss Lizzie Meisley of Rohrestown were recent guests of G. W. Bricka and family.

Miss Jennie Currens has returned from her visit of several weeks at Harrisburg.

Mrs. John Bigham is slowly improving.

Charles White has accepted a position at Waynesboro at the Brick Works.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bell and Miss Mary Mort while driving home from Gettysburg recently met with an accident. Their horse became frightened going down Bencholt's hill and starting to run upset the wagon and threw occupants to the ground. Mr. and Mrs. Bell received several cuts. Miss Mort escaped any injury. The horse became detached from wagon and ran to Mr. Millard Patterson's where he was caught.

J. W. Currens lost a horse by death last week.

Ortanna, Nov. 2nd. C. J. Dearhoff has moved his sawmill from below Gettysburg to the large timber tract in Franklin township which he purchased from Charles Mickley.

David Sharrab our champion butcher says he is ready for the season's work and expects to beat his last year's record.

The chestnut crop in and through this section is some what larger than for a number of years.

The recent storm blew down many corn cobs through this section.

J. C. Nary of this place, our order maker, on a recent day made 1800 gallons of cider. John has one of the best apple orchards in the county and one of the best locations.

The fire at the old gas distillation plant, which destroyed the buildings for some time.

Mrs. V. A. S. and her family are well. Mrs. S. is recovering from her illness and her family is well.

Charles A. Peppel, son of John C. Peppel and wife of this place, who resides in the city, was married to Miss Sallie A. Werner of Gettysburg on Nov. 3rd.

The recent storm has blown down many corn cobs through this section.

MISSION SERVICE

Buchanan Valley, Nov. 5. Rev. T. J. McDonald, C. M. and Director of Missions, assisted by Rev. T. A. Judge, C. M., held a mission in St. Ignace Church, Buchanan Valley, beginning Oct. 21 Sunday and closing on Sunday Oct. 28 of the same week. The mission was largely attended notwithstanding the extremely bad weather the greater part of the week, some of the people coming from a great distance and attending the morning and evening services. The first sermon, delivered so eloquently, were listened to with great attention and pleasure and the result of the mission was very beneficial. At the close a large mission cross was erected in front of the church to commemorate the mission and will have the date of the mission inscribed upon it. This was the fourth mission held in this church. The first one in 1871 was held by Rev. Father Emig, S. J. There was one in 1875 and also in 1884. The present missionaries were of the order of St. Vincent and Paul of Germany and Poland.
